THE SATURDAY REVIEW

Kevin Dennis, car dealer, super salesman and beneficiary of capitalism, explains why he is now backing Labor (perhaps at a discount!)

Update your party with KD

by JOHN LARKIN

THERE comes a time every year, about now, in fact, when I and probably lots of other people are inclined to think "Oh, to be in England now that April's there."

The reason is that of course it's spring, overcast and a bit misty, but it is a particularly nice time to be in England. It's not too hot, it's not too cold, it's just about right. And then there's the fact that the weather is just what you need for a holiday in the south of France. It's not too hot, it's not too cold, it's just about right. And then there's the fact that the weather is just what you need for a holiday in the south of France.

Photographer Bruce Pugh caught KD in his typical TV pose with his Maserati sports coupe and his Buick-Royal Starline. Note the number plates of the front car. Upholstering or upholstery?

He almost chokes smokes Peter Stewart. The meaning of KD exercises are done to about three times a week. But he also does things like he will go to lunch about once a week, and he will go to lunch about once a week. He will go to lunch about once a week, and he will go to lunch about once a week. He will go to lunch about once a week, and he will go to lunch about once a week.
